Coach Sean Chase

1. What are your main duties at Redland Christian Academy?

“My main duty is to always serve God, but my main duty at RCA is to make sure the students are loved and safe by teaching them life lessons through sports.”

2. What is your goal to achieve in regards to the sports team this year?

“My goal for this year is to assist the growth of the sports team in any way possible.”

3. What would you like to see implemented into the P.E department this year?

“I believe the P.E department is in solid shape at the moment, but I would like to remind parents of the importance of students paying their sports fees in order to use the revenue generated so we may build up the academic side of RCA.”

Hosea 6:1

Children Learn What They Live

“If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn . . .

If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight . . .

If a child lives with fear, he learns to be apprehensive . . .

If a child lives with pity, he learns to feel sorry for himself . . .

If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy . . .

If a child lives with jealousy, he learns to feel envy . . .

If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty . . .

BUT

If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient . . .

If a child lives with encouragement, he learns to be confident . . .

If a child lives with praise, he learns to be appreciative . . .

If a child lives with acceptance, he learns to love . . .

If children live with approval, they learn to like themselves..

If a child lives with honesty, he learns what truth is . . .

If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice . . .

If children live with recognition, they learn to have a goal.

If children live with sharing, they learn to be generous.

If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith in himself and those about him . . .

If a child lives with friendliness, he learns the world is a nice place in which to live.”
